

VERMONT WORKING LANDS ENTERPRISE INITIATIVE

Calderwood Goat Dairy

Royalton, VT

Vermont Creamery desires dairy-goat milk from VT farms. Douglas Calderwood will begin milking goats in April, 2016 with rapid growth to 600 head, producing year round. Douglas Calderwood is a skilled goat dairy farmer returning to VT, employing modern practices on a farm he is purchasing in Royalton. Working Lands support will leverage the savings and experience of a young farmer returning to VT to create jobs, increase productive acreage and provide milk for Vermont Creamery.

Total Working Lands Grant—$13,000 to begin a goat dairy.
