 Parish Hill Creamery and Cellars at Jasper Hill were two of the submitted working lands applications that fell under stricter requirements for the USDA Dairy Innovation Center funding. Based on the limited WLEI funds, these grants were able to be sponsored by the Dairy Business Innovation Center, which targets value-added processors to work with professional firms for marketing and branding.

ASSOCIATED TOWNS Where Grant Recipients Are Located

In response to the ongoing challenges that COVID-19 presents to Vermont's working lands businesses, the Working Lands Enterprise Board (WLEB) announced 16 businesses who have received over $250,000 in COVID-19 Response Business Development Grants within the sectors of agriculture and forestry. These funds are designed to complement a business's ability to maintain operations while increasing capacity to rebuild and/or recover during an unprecedented time of need.
